The Pelicans also sunk a perfect 4-of-4 from the charity stripe. They held the Wizards to 11-of-21 (.524) from the field and 5-of-10 (.500) from deep. New Orleans notched four fast break points and 10 points off Washington turnovers. The Pelicans also out-rebounded the Wizards 10-3. Starters CJ McCollum and Brandon Ingram both put up 13 points in the quarter.

Happy New Year: On January 2, 2024, the Pelicans started the new year off on the right foot. The Pelicans beat the Brooklyn Nets 112-85 in regulation.

- Through the first three quarters of action, New Orleans held Brooklyn to just 58 points, which marks a low in the NBA for a team through three quarters this season. The last team to score 58 or fewer points through the first three quarters in a regular season game was Portland (58) on March 27, 2023 vs. New Orleans.
- Additionally, the Pelicans finished the game with McCollum leading the way with 16 points.
  - The Last time in New Orleans franchise history to win a game by 25 or more points with no player scoring 20-plus points was 1/27/2012, when New Orleans beat the Orlando Magic 93-67. The leading scorer for the Pelicans in that game was Carl Landry with 17 points off the bench.

Inaugural In-Season Tournament: On 12/4, the Pelicans faced the Kings for the third time this season in an In-Season Tournament quarter-final. Brandon Ingram led the team with 30 points, eight boards, six assists and one steal. After falling behind early in the first quarter, New Orleans outshot Sacramento in the second frame, shooting 12-of-21 (.571) from the field, 6-of-10 (.600) from three, and 4-of-5 (.800) from the charity stripe. Leading 69-61 at the half, New Orleans maintained their lead over Sacramento for the remainder of the game. The Pelicans outscored the Kings 52-38 in the paint, and 17-13 in second chance points. The Pelicans bench proved integral in the win, totaling 29 points, three blocks, five steals and ten boards. The win marked the Pelicans' third against the Kings this season, and secured New Orleans' spot in the first-ever In-Season Tournament semifinals. The team travelled to Las Vegas, where they faced the Lakers on 12/7. The Pelicans fell 133-89 to Los Angeles, who went on to win the NBA Cup. The Pelicans return to their regularly scheduled season with a home game vs. Minnesota on Monday, 12/11.

Won't Bow Down: On November 1, 2023, the New Orleans Pelicans overcame a 22-point deficit, which is tied for the third-largest comeback in franchise history. Additionally, the Pelicans 22-point comeback in Oklahoma City, marks the largest road comeback in franchise history.

David Griffin ▪ Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations

▪ In 2022-23, the Pelicans went 42-40, the team's best record since the 2017-18 season.

▪ In 2021-22, the Pelicans earned their first playoff berth of Griffin's tenure. The ninth-seed in the Western Conference, New Orleans won both Play-In Tournament games to clinch a First Round matchup against the Phoenix Suns, in which they pushed the one-seed to six games.

On April 17, 2019, David Griffin was named the Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations, becoming the eighth individual in franchise history to lead the organization's player and personnel decisions.

▪ Griffin was named the Vice President of Basketball Operations for the Cleveland Cavaliers in September 2010 and was elevated to General Manager on February 6, 2014.

▪ During Griffin's tenure in Cleveland, the Cavaliers reached the NBA Finals for three consecutive seasons from 2015-17, winning the NBA Championship in 2016, becoming the first team in NBA Finals history to overcome a 3-1 deficit.

▪ Prior to joining Cleveland, Griffin spent 17 seasons with the Phoenix Suns, moving to the basketball operations department in 1997 after beginning in media relations. Along the way, Griffin held titles of senior vice president of basketball operations, assistant general manager, director of player personnel, assistant director of player personnel and basketball operations assistant.

WILLIE GREEN – DETROIT MERCY

Coaching Notes

• Appointed head coach on July 22, 2021, his first head coaching position in the NBA. Green enters his third season with New Orleans.

• On 1/7/24 at SAC, notched his 100th career win in the NBA.

• In his second season as the Pelicans Head Coach, Green led the team to a 42-40 overall record, the team's best record since 2017-18. The Pelicans finished the regular season ranked sixth in defensive rating (112.0) and ranked 10th in net rating (1.9). Green led the Pelicans to a ninth-place finish in the Western Conference, where New Orleans fell to Oklahoma City in the Play-In Tournament.

• In his first season with the Pelicans, Green led the team to its first playoff appearance since 2018. Praised around the league for his steady and calm demeanor, Green helped the Pelicans overcome a 1-12 start to the season to earn the ninth seed and reach the postseason Play-In Tournament. The Pelicans defeated San Antonio and the LA Clippers to clinch a First Round matchup against the Phoenix Suns, in which they pushed the one-seed to six games.

• Spent the previous two seasons (2019-21) as an assistant coach for the Phoenix Suns. Helped guide the 2021 Western Conference Champions to their first NBA Finals appearance since 1993. As the Suns' defensive coordinator, Phoenix finished the regular season with the NBA's sixth-best defensive rating. He also served as the Phoenix's head coach for NBA Summer League in 2019, leading the Suns to a 3-1 record in Las Vegas.

• Helped the Warriors win back-to-back NBA Championships in 2017 and 2018 before returning to the NBA Finals in 2019. He also served as the Warriors' head coach for NBA Summer League in 2018, leading Golden State to the California Classic's only 3-0 record.

• A 12-year NBA veteran as a player, Green averaged 8.3 points, 1.8 rebounds and 1.4 assists in 731 regular season games (297 starts) with Philadelphia, New Orleans, Atlanta, the LA Clippers and Orlando from 2003-2015.

• Was selected 41st overall by Seattle in the 2003 NBA Draft.

• Was a four-year standout at the University of Detroit Mercy. A native of Detroit, he won Horizon League Player of the Year as a senior in 2003 and helped the Titans to two NIT appearances in 2001 and 2002, including a trip to the semifinals at Madison Square Garden in 2001. Green remains fourth in program history in career points scored.
